

THE CENTRAL RECORD

PURE RELIGION, UNTARNISHED DEMOCRACY AND GOOD GOVERNMENT.

LANCASTER, KY., FRIDAY, JULY 14, 1911.

NUMBER 14.

TWENTY SECOND YEAR.

WE HAVE A FEW

Buggies & Surries

that we will make a special price on, as we do not want to move them to our new location (Mason Hotel.)

Now is the time to get bar gains in BUGGIES. All this work is GUARANTEED.

Come early, don't delay and let your neighbor get the choice. They are going to sell.

We can save you money if you will let us.

CONN BROTHERS

Lancaster, Ky.

This office has just completed the catalogues for the colored fair.

July 1st has come and gone. Call by this office and pay your subscription.

Well wasn't that rain a hammer this week and don't our people feel good over it? Corn is certainly going to be good this year from the present outlook.

A fine seven pound boy came to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Elsener of Charleston, West Va. on July sixth. The little fellow has been christened John Nepomuck Elsener, after his grand father, Mr. Nepomuck Miller of this place.

Aldridge.

Archie Lee Aldridge, the three months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Aldridge of Marksburg died last Friday evening at 4:30 P. M. and was buried at the Lancaster Cemetery on Saturday morning at eleven o'clock. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved Parents.

Picnic.

The members of the Christian church had a good old fashioned picnic in the church yard last Thursday night and fried chicken and old ham with all the other good things to eat made the evening pass off quicker than it would have otherwise. A large crowd of children and grown people attended.

Danville Fair.

The Danville fair this year is going to be a hummer with our good friend Col. I. M. Dunn acting as secretary. The premium list is large and the fair is being advertised extensively and complimentary tickets are floating in the air, among the newspaper men. This fair will start the next week after our fair and will catch most of the horses shown here as well as a large crowd, from this county. See the large advertisement in this issue of the RECORD.

Enjoying The Springs.

Mr. George Smith, Jr., Lancaster, Ky., a well and popularly known newspaper man in that city, has laid aside the editorial pen for a time and is enjoying a recreational period at West Baden Springs. He has visited at West Baden a number of times before and thinks well of the place and the mineral waters. Mr. Smith was for several years connected with the Cincinnati Enquirer, but for some time past has been Assistant Editor of The Central Record, which is published at Lancaster, and it is a live and well edited paper. He was a pleasant social caller at this office.—The West Baden Journal.

The city council appointed Honorable R. H. Tomlinson as City Attorney, H. Clay Kauffman having resigned.

Notice To Teachers.

As soon as the school begins each teacher is requested to mail contract to this office. The State Department advises that no salary be paid any teacher until this contract is filed.

Miss Jennie Higgins, Supt.

Politics and Insurance.

Editor Woods of the Mt. Sterling Gazette is wasting a good deal of labor this hot weather, and destroying a large amount of good white paper in his fight on Auditor James. The Democrats will attend to the Mercer county man's case in due time, so Mr. Woods can let up. Mr. James will only have one job soon, that of President of the Henry Clay Insurance Company, which a good many people think he ought not to have accepted while presiding over the department which is charged with the supervision of insurance companies.—W. P. Walton in Lexington Herald.

Hughes.

Mrs. Ann T. Hughes, wife of Logan R. Hughes of Stanford died last Sunday evening and was buried in the Buffalo Cemetery Monday evening. Services were conducted by Elder D. M. Walker, pastor of the Stanford Christian church. She was a great favorite in Lincoln county and had many admiring friends here and was connected with some of the best people in our county. She was only 34 years of age and had been married only a few years. Her life was a sacrifice on the altar of motherhood and she followed her unborn babe over the river there to join it never to be separated.

Garrard County For Cox.

The republicans of Garrard county met at the court house on last Saturday in Mass convention and sent a delegation to Louisville instructed to vote for Governor W. H. Cox for Governor and for Judge L. W. Bethum for Auditor. They were unopposed as to the other offices. Mr. R. H. Batson was elected chairman and Wm. Johnson, Secy. There were a few voters who favored the nomination of Judge O'Rear but after Judge L. L. Walker made his speech and told of what a friend Gov. Cox had been to him by appointing him Circuit Judge and to the people of Garrard county by doing so much to elect Bradley to the United States Senate, the vote was taken and Cox won by a large majority.

Democrats Making Honest Efforts.

The Democrats are sincere in their efforts to run the House of Representatives on an economical business basis. The report of Jerry South, chief clerk of the House, just made public, shows that during the month of June a saving of $8,581.90 was effected as a result of the abolishing of useless offices. This item, which does not include the big reduction on the police force which the senate has not yet concurred in but will approve shortly, means a saving of $102,742.80 in a year.

This is not a stupendous sum, it is true, but the spirit is in striking contrast to the $35 wastepaper baskets in the offices of Postmaster General Hitchcock and the expensive recreations taken by the Aldrich monetary commission at public expense at Narragansett pier.

Good Man Announces.

The announcement in this issue of the RECORD that Mr. E. B. Ray is a democratic candidate for the nomination for Assessor of this county does not come as a surprise to the voters as it has been rumored for some time that he would seek the nomination. Mr. Ray is a dyed-in-the-wool democrat and has always been found fighting for the cause since he has been a voter. His home is in Buckeye and he has many friends there as well as all over the country who say that he is a sure winner. He has taken a leading part in Garrard county politics in every election for the past several years and in asking for this nomination he does so with the confident belief that his friends will stand by him and repay him for the good work done in the past.

Grimes.

Mr. Charley Grimes, died at his home near Lancaster Monday morning at 4 o'clock of pneumonia after an illness of several weeks and was buried in the Lancaster cemetery at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. Cousin Charley, as he was familiarly known by nearly every man, woman and child in Garrard county had lived all his life in this county and was 72 years of age. He had a smile and a cheering word for every one and could always amuse a crowd with his jokes. He was one of Garrard counties most noted fruit raisers and always had a good variety on hand and nearly every one in Lancaster always wanted Cousin Charley to fix up their trees every spring.

His death did not come as a surprise as he has been paralyzed for some weeks and his family and friends feared that he would not get well although they had hoped that he might pull through this spell. He had the disposition that made friends wherever he went and every one feels sad to hear of his death and sympathize with his wife, two daughters and one son in the loss of a good husband and father.

Quite a crowd of Garrard County people were in Lexington Wednesday night to hear Gov. Woodrow Wilson speak before the Kentucky Bar Ass'n.

Republican Convention.

The nomination of Judge E. C. O'Rear for Governor, by the Republican State Convention, was not a surprise as the rank and file of the party were for him. The platform adopts considerable democratic thunder, but not enough to win, when their plans and methods are made known to the people. Everybody is for good roads, good schools, fair elections and a better system of taxation. Democrats advocate all these and everything that insures the greatest good to the greatest number. While we will have an invincible organization and we can win by an old time majority, it behooves every democrat to be alert, rally around the banner and above all things vote when the polls open.

There is no wisdom in ignoring the fact that the Republicans are full of enthusiasm, and they will poll a full vote. Beware of too much confidence in our strength. Victories have been lost by sleeping on guns instead of putting them in action. If democrats do their duty there is no danger of defeat. O'Rear has made mistakes enough to lose in the battle of ballots.

McCreary stands for everything that is pure and for the public good, in political and official life. His long and honorable career is known by all men, and with the worthy and popular ticket in line with him, we have nothing to fear if we are vigilant, active and watchful.

Later news comes that the Hon. L. L. Bristow has been nominated for Lieutenant Governor, Harmon Monroe for Treasurer, Tom McGregor for Attorney General and Judge L. W. Bethum for State Auditor at the republican convention Wednesday afternoon.

Our Court House.

Time after time THE RECORD has called attention to the dilapidated condition of our court house, however this time we desire to call your attention to the new coat of paint which covers the outside. The clock has had new gold put on it and if we had not seen the old structure for these many years we would be tempted to think that it was a new building. The county has spent several hundred dollars fixing the inside of the cupola and having this paint put on. Now there is only one more thing to do and that is to fix up the vaults. Our Fiscal Court would also have had this done but that would take more money than they can spare. The only way to fix the vaults is to vote bonds and we think that the people will soon realize the necessity of having this done. We cannot save our life see why there is any person in the county who could be opposed to these bonds for at the present time you are paying every cent of tax that the law allows and should you vote ten thousand dollars worth of bonds, the law would not allow you to pay any more tax even if you wanted to.

We congratulate each and every member of our Fiscal court upon the good work they have done, and assure them that the good people of the county will appreciate their efforts to have a court house of which we are at least not ashamed of from the outside.

Dunlap.

John Jennings Dunlap died of heart disease, at Flemingsburg, Ky., on Thursday the 29th. He was born at Franklin Female Institute Lancaster, Ky., May 28, 1876, was graduated from State University in 1896; began the practice of law with Judge Lewis Walker at Lancaster in 1904, was married to Miss Thelda Dudley of Flemingsburg in 1906, and was an official in the Internal Revenue service, stationed at Covington, at the time of his death. He had been off duty for some weeks on account of illness and was a guest among his wife's relatives when the end suddenly came. He was the second son of the Rev. George W. Dunlap, who is now a resident of Las Animas, Colorado; and a grandson of the Hon. George W. Dunlap of the Lancaster, bar. His maternal grandfather was the Hon. John Gibson Finnie of Memphis, Tenn.

He was a young man of high principles and upright life, readily making friends and exceedingly lovable in character. He was a favorite with all who knew him, and there are many to mourn his taking away in the prime of his young manhood. He is survived by his wife and infant daughter, his father, too brothers, and four sisters; Mr. George Gibson Dunlap, of Peoria, Ill., Mr. Wesley Dunlap, of Latonia, Ky., Miss Fannie Dunlap, of New York; Miss Marie Barnes Dunlap, of Covington; and Misses Alice and Nancy of Colorado.

The funeral and interment took place Sunday, July 2, at Flemingsburg amid a large concourse of sorrowing friends. The following named Lexington kindred went over in a motor car to attend the sad rites; Mrs. E. D. Potts, Mr. and Mrs. Wood G. Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Williamson, and Mrs. Gray F. Dunlap. By a strange fatality this is the fifth young, start-ward man in the Dunlap family to die within a few months.
